Committee Report - August 2012

4. Captain

- Club Championships

Men

All those that entered appeared to have a good day especially as the weather was far better than we had been having recently. It was also very nice to see the atmosphere in the club where all those competing were supportive of all other competitors. Congratulations go to:

Leigh Stanger (gross score 75/77) winner of the Arthur Trudgett Cup

Jim Airth (net score 70/69) winner of the Godfrey Elliott Bowl

Ladies

As with the men the ladies enjoyed a day a good weather. Congratulations to:

Fay Carpenter (gross score 79/80) winner of the Ladies Championship trophy

Sianell White (net score 74/75) winner of the Griffin trophy

Shop News:

We had to postpone the Demo Day for weather reasons, with more planned for next year. The shop has been busier and with the autumn approaching the search for winter stock has begun.

Staff News:

Along with Leigh we now have some of our younger players helping during busy times, this is to educate them on club life and also to introduce them to the membership. You may see Jack Baker or Josie Harrington helping out so please make them feel welcome.
